BAPTIST CHURCH

OCTOBER 25, 2026

FROM THE PASTOR

Friend, there is a lot to be excited about around Landmark Baptist Church! First, we are excited that you are here. We have enjoyed a steady flow of visitors, and we thank the Lord for every person He brings our way.

If you are visiting today, welcome! We hope you will feel at home, meet some friendly people, and receive encouragement from God's Word. Church family, let's make sure our guests know we are glad they came.

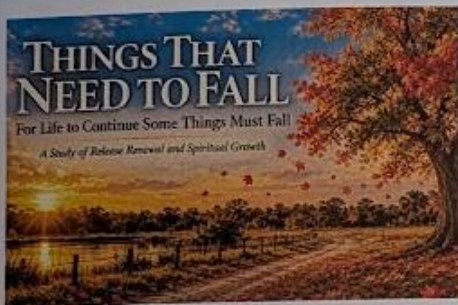

And how about this weather? Having lived in Florida all my life, I know October can still mean heat, humidity, and keeping an eye on the tropics. These cooler mornings and that touch of fall have been a welcome blessing. Usually, we have to turn down the air conditioner and pretend it is autumn. This year, we have actually had a little help outside! Praise the Lord, fall is in the air.

I am also excited about this morning's message. It has been a meaningful season studying Things That Need to Fall. We understand that some things need to leave our lives for real spiritual renewal to take place. But here is a question worth bringing into worship today: Do we really want renewal, or do we want to keep the things that need to fall? We can become comfortable defending attitudes and habits that God calls us to put away. My prayer is that the Holy Spirit will speak to each of us, giving us willing hearts to receive His correction and follow His Word. Friend, we need to drop some things before we drop what matters most.

And yes, this pastor is excited about the Tampa Bay Rays winning their third American League pennant! There is something special about October baseball when your team is still playing. Go Rays!

We have good reasons to smile today, and a wonderful opportunity to worship, learn, and respond to the Lord together. I am thankful to share this morning with you.

Did Ehud act alone?

Judges 3:15-30

As I continued reading through Judges, I came across the account of Ehud, whom God raised up to deliver Israel from eighteen years of Moabite oppression.

As I read, a question came to mind: Did Israel know Ehud was planning to assassinate King Eglon, or was this something Ehud decided to do on his own?

Judges 3:15 tells us that Israel sent Ehud to deliver tribute to the king. However, verse 16 says, "But Ehud made him a dagger which had two edges." That contrast caught my attention. Israel sent him with a present, but Ehud prepared a weapon. After delivering the tribute, Ehud sent his companions away, returned alone, and requested a private audience with Eglon. He then killed the king and escaped. But something else made me question whether Israel knew his intentions. Judges 3:27 says, "And it came to pass, when he was come, that he blew a trumpet in the mountain of Ephraim, and the children of Israel went down with him from the mount, and he before them."

Were the Israelites already waiting for Ehud's signal? Had they planned an uprising together? Or was the trumpet simply a call to assemble for battle? Scripture doesn't explicitly answer these questions. Trumpets were commonly used to summon people for battle, so Ehud may have been gathering Israel after carrying out his plan. Furthermore, the Moabites and Israelites occupied different regions, making the hill country a suitable place to rally Israel's forces. What we know is that God raised up Ehud as a deliverer. Ehud prepared carefully, acted decisively, and then called Israel to follow him. Together they defeated the Moabites, and the land enjoyed eighty years of rest. Whether Ehud acted entirely on his own or with the knowledge of others, Scripture makes one thing clear: the LORD was the source of Israel's deliverance.
